

NAME: _____

PD/DAY: _____

LESSON 1: HOMEWORK

Short answer:

1. _____ is a thick, dark liquid that forms when tobacco burns.
2. The colorless, odorless, poisonous gas produced when tobacco burns is called _____.
3. Tobacco smoke damages the tiny air sacs in the lungs called _____ which is where carbon dioxide from body cells and fresh oxygen from the air are exchanged.
4. Serious lung disease that damages the alveoli caused by smoking is _____.
5. The addictive drug in tobacco is called _____.

True/False

- _____ 6. Smoking only damages a few body systems like the lungs and other organs related to breathing.
- _____ 7. Smoking filtered cigarettes is a healthier alternative to regular cigarettes.
- _____ 8. Small amounts of Cyanide, a deadly poison is one of the many dangerous chemicals in tobacco smoke.
- _____ 9. The nicotine in smokeless tobacco is just as harmful and addictive as that in cigarettes.
- _____ 10. Flavored cigarettes produce even more nicotine, tar, and carbon monoxide than regular cigarettes do.

IS THERE ANY SAFE OR HEALTHY FORM OF TOBACCO? _____