

Tobacco Resistance Scenarios

You are at a friend's home, and a pack of cigarettes is on the kitchen counter. Your friend suggests that each of you take a cigarette out of the pack to smoke.

You are walking home after school and a friend pulls out a pack of cigarettes and offers you one.

After baseball practice, a friend pulls out a tin of chewing tobacco, and offers you some tobacco.

Before going in to the movie theatre, your friend suggests stopping to smoke a cigarette.

You have invited several friends over to your house for a birthday party sleepover. Later in the evening, one of the girls pulls out a pack of cigarettes and lights up.

While walking through the halls at school, a friend asks you to go to the rest room to join some friends who are smoking.

At the park a friend finds a can of smokeless tobacco on a picnic table and wants you to try it with him.

At your home a friend discovers your father's cigarettes and he wants to take the pack of cigarettes outside so the two of you can try smoking them.

While your parents are out of the house, your brother offers you a cigarette.

While watching TV a friend pulls out a can of chewing tobacco and offers it to you.

A group of friends are walking to an evening school event, when one of the boys pulls out a pack of cigarettes for everyone to smoke.

While at the ice skating rink several friends invite you to step outside to smoke cigarettes.

Several friends are skateboarding, an older guy pulls a can of chewing tobacco out offering it to everyone.

A group of kids are playing basketball at the park, one of the players pulls out cigarettes and several of the kids take one and start to smoke.

While working on a class project at a friend's house one of the girls walks out onto the deck, lights a cigarette and offers it to you.

You just joined a youth football team. While walking home with several of the players, one of the guys pulls out a can of chew and offered it to everyone.

Riding in the backseat of a car with a friend, she shows you cigarettes she toke from an older sister, and she wants you to try smoking them, before you go into a basketball game.

While enjoying a pizza party at a friend's house, several of the girls get cigarettes out of their purses and start to smoke. They ask you to join them.

A friend's older brother has picked the two of you up from school, and on the way home offers you some of his chewing tobacco.

Several friends are hanging out one afternoon and someone suggests everyone put some money together to buy cigarettes at a convenience store.

You are at a week-long camp, several of the campers in your cabin plan to sneak a smoke later in the evening and they ask you to join them.

While hanging out with a group of friends, one of the girls puts a pack of cigarettes out and lights up a cigarette. She turns to you first, and asks if you would like to try the cigarette.