Why did the US NOT invade Iraq?

“Whose life would be on my hands as the commander-in-chief because I, unilaterally, went beyond the international law, went beyond the stated mission, and said we're going to show our macho? We're going into Baghdad. We're going to be an occupying power — America in an Arab land — with no allies at our side. It would have been disastrous.”

-President George H. W. Bush (1998)

“And the question in my mind is, how many additional American casualties is Saddam worth? And the answer is, not that damn many. So, I think we got it right, both when we decided to expel him from Kuwait, but also when the President made the decision that we’d achieved our objectives and were not going to get bogged down in the problems of trying to take over and govern Iraq.”
