Bringing Lasting Peace Around The World

Creating the conditions needed for peace has already taken us to more than 55 countries, which have invited us to monitor elections, help improve other parts of the democratic process, such as transparency, or improve human rights and the administration of justice. Your support plays an essential role in our successes.

1 Our Access to Information conference in Lima this past April examined ways in which this crucial element of a healthy, functioning democracy can be strengthened throughout the Americas.

2 Ghana's most recent election makes for five consecutive successes in this defining exercise of democracy. Thank you for helping make this possible!

3 Here at the Kingasani police station, we've begun bringing vital human rights training to the Democratic Republic of the Congo, teaching officers not only about the rights of prisoners and the accused, but of officers themselves.
