

Style Sheet for President Final Paper Assignment – Fall 2014

Mr. Tengowski

1. Papers are to be 4 paragraphs long. That ought to translate into approximately 3 pages in length. Your bibliography does not count as one of the three required pages. There does NOT need to be a conclusion paragraph for this assignment.
2. All papers must be double spaced, each paper needs to have a title, 12 pt. Cambria font, with 1" margins on all sides and page numbers (located at the bottom or in the upper right corner). Your heading for each paper should be as follows:
 - a. Name
 - b. Period
 - c. Date
3. There ought to be a creative title for this assignment. Center it above the introductory paragraph.
4. There must be one internal citation per body paragraph in this paper for a total of (3). Whatever quote you use from a source, make sure that you explain in the paper how it relates to your thesis and what you are writing... Internal Citations should look like (Author, Pg. #) or (Title, Pg. #). An example of this would be (Jones, 345) or (Eisenhower, 345). Remember to find direct quotes from your candidate or someone from their administration.
5. The sources that are acceptable are the textbook, books in the library, educational and informative sources (.gov, .mil, .edu, .org, etc.) There should be a minimum of three (3) sources to be used within your bibliography.
Sources such as .com or wikipedia or encyclopedias are not allowed and points will be taken off...
6. Sum up and close the argument. Take a stand. Make sure that your point is well proven and able to stand up against scrutiny. Prove to me something... remember you are to identify the plan put forward by President Obama and how your candidate 's plan is better and then why is it better.
