One of the activities I did this summer was going to the zoo. My favorite thing at the zoo was watching the monkeys go crazy in their cages. Several of the monkeys were actually begging for treats from the spectators! We decided to have lunch at the zoo food court, and I had a juicy cheeseburger with catsup and pickles. For dessert, I quickly devoured a bowl full of vanilla ice cream. Unfortunately, it started raining, and we had to leave early. Since we forgot our umbrella, we had to sprint to the car like a gazelle being chased by a lion. Despite the rain, I had a blast at the zoo.
