Say each word using your good "OR" sound. Remember that "Or" has two parts – the vowel "Oah" and the consonant "Rrr." Each time you say the word correctly, give yourself a plus "+" or a checkmark in the box, don't move onto the next word until the first word is said correctly 25 times.

Once you say each word 25 times correctly and the entire table is filled, say each word in sentences or make a large story using each word one time. A space for a picture is provided below to help you visualize your story.

Norway
For Gorgeous
Explore
Ports
Shoreline
Fort
Exploring
Cork
Boards
Or
Floors
Your Portugal
Source
Flooring
Lord
Baltimore
Oriole
Orange
More
Uniforms
Worn
Popcorn
Story
San Salvador
Pour
Mort
Foreman
Georgia
More
Morning
Storage

Important
Forgotten
Chorus
Organized
Porcupine
Horoscope
Corn chips
Tortilla
Florida
Normal
Pork
Gordon
Formal

Space for drawing: