

WHY, MONKEY, WHY?.

Exploring “Why” questions with Monkey.
By: Jamie Sue Austin

WHY, MONKEY, WHY?.

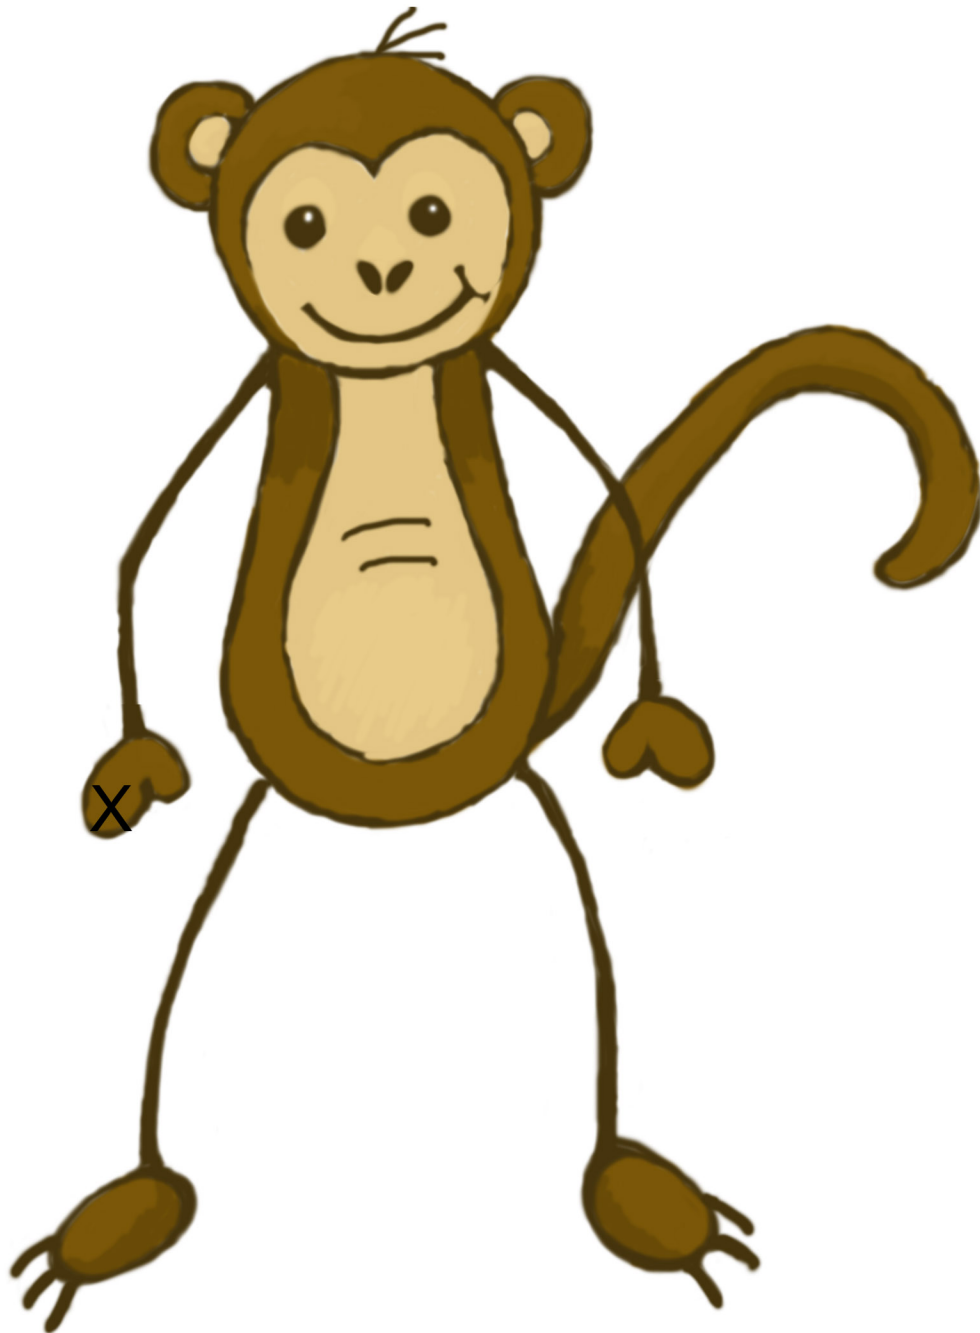

How to Use this book:

Cut out all the images on the last two pages. While reading the book with your child have the child place the appropriate image on the X. Help the child understand what is happening in the picture and why Monkey wants, has, or is wearing a particular item.

Laminate book pages and clip art, use velcro dots to attach pictures for best results.

Thank you for downloading Why, Monkey, Why from FreePrintableFun.Org.

Monkey wants a hair brush.
Why does Monkey want a hair brush?
Because he wants to brush his hair.

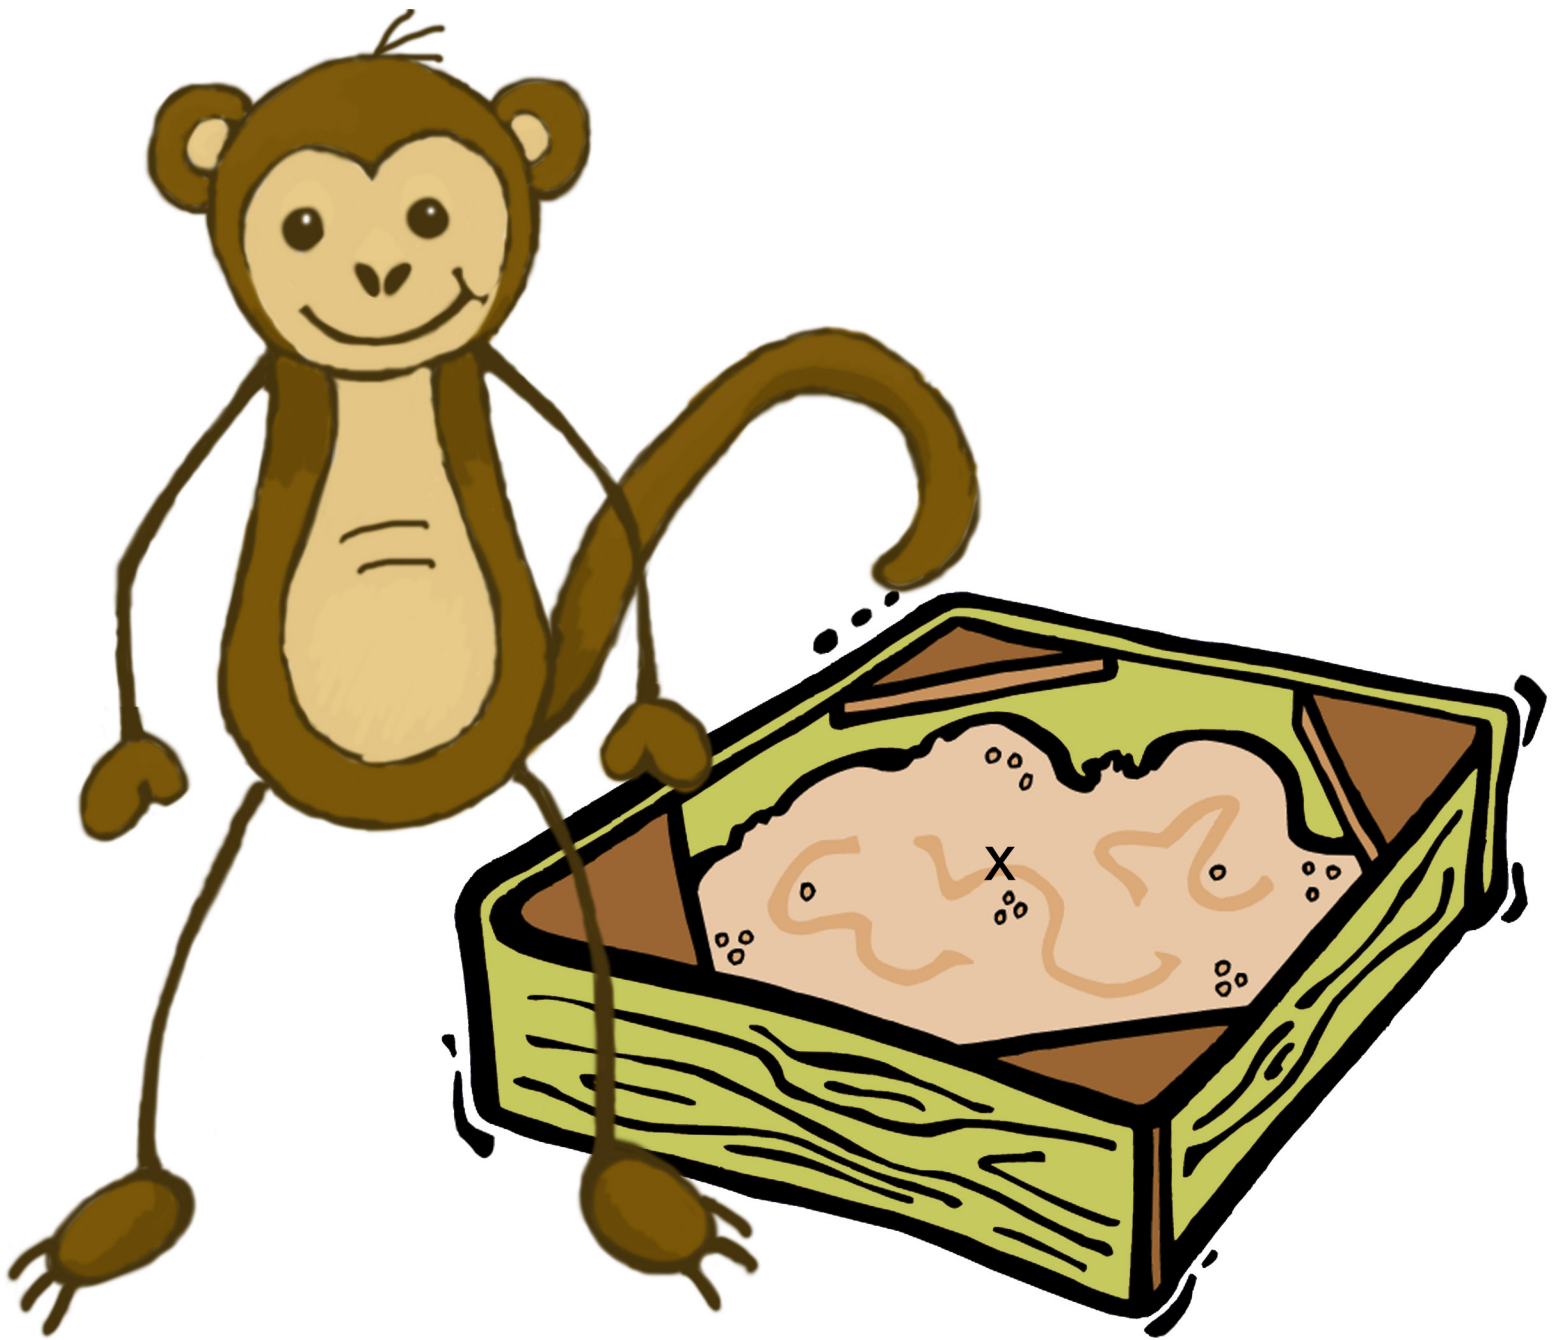

Monkey wants a paint brush.
Why does Monkey want a paint brush?
Because he wants to paint.

Monkey wants soap.
Why does Monkey want soap?
Because he wants to wash his hands.

Monkey wants an umbrella.
Why does Monkey wants an umbrella?
Because it is raining.

Monkey wants a shovel and pail.
Why does Monkey want a shovel and pail?
Because he wants to play in the sand box.

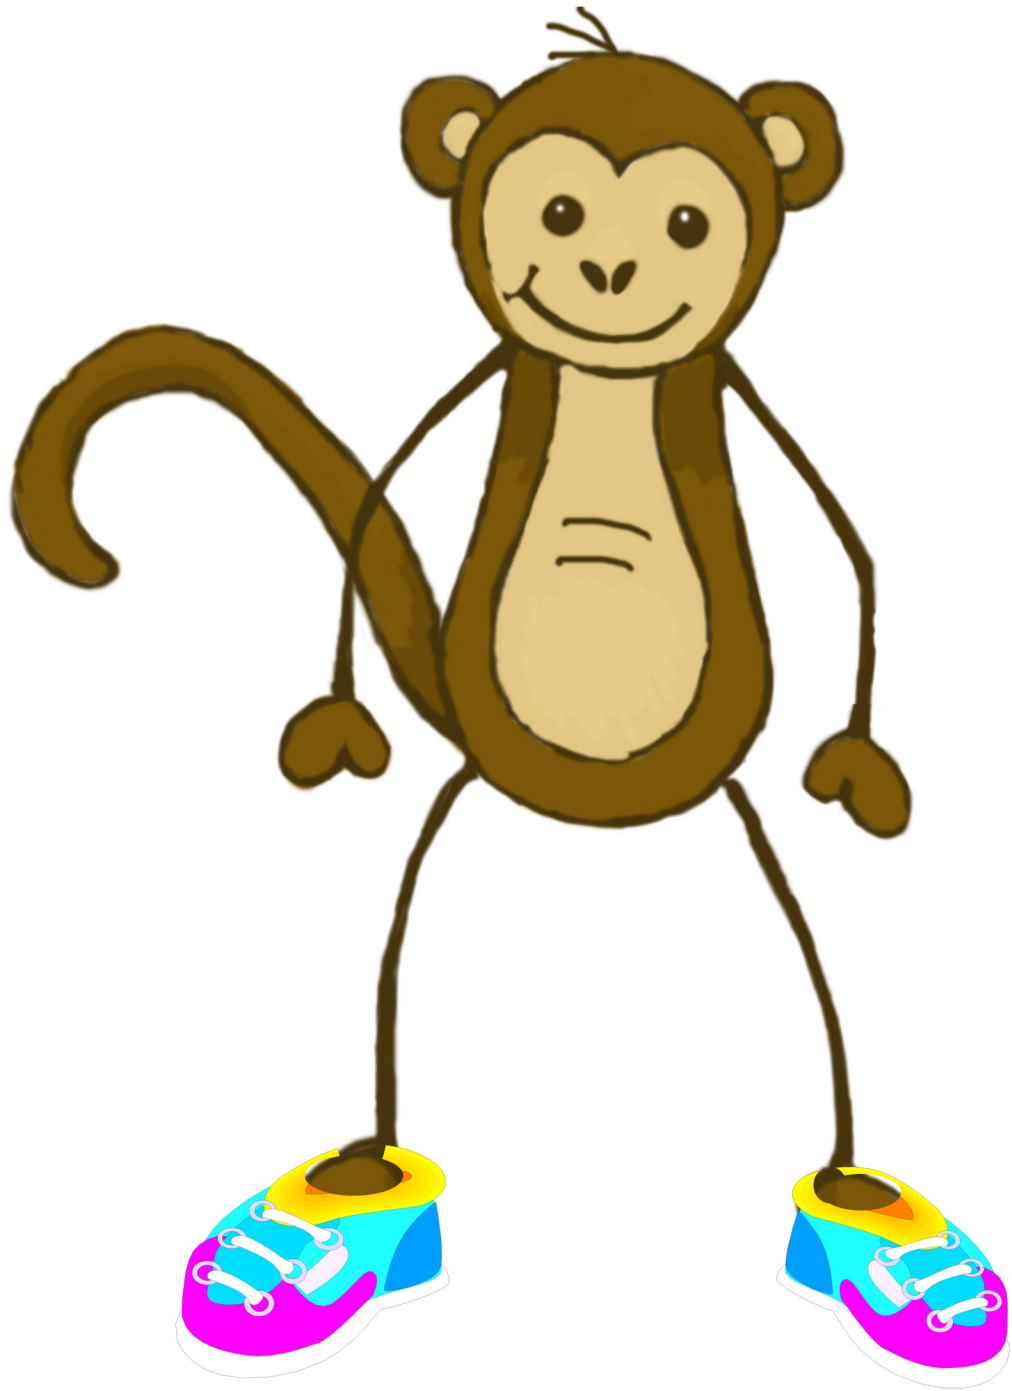

x

Monkey is wearing pajamas.
Why is Monkey wearing pajamas?
Because he is going to bed.

x

Monkey is wearing a seatbelt.
Why is Monkey wearing a seatbelt?
Because he is riding in the car.

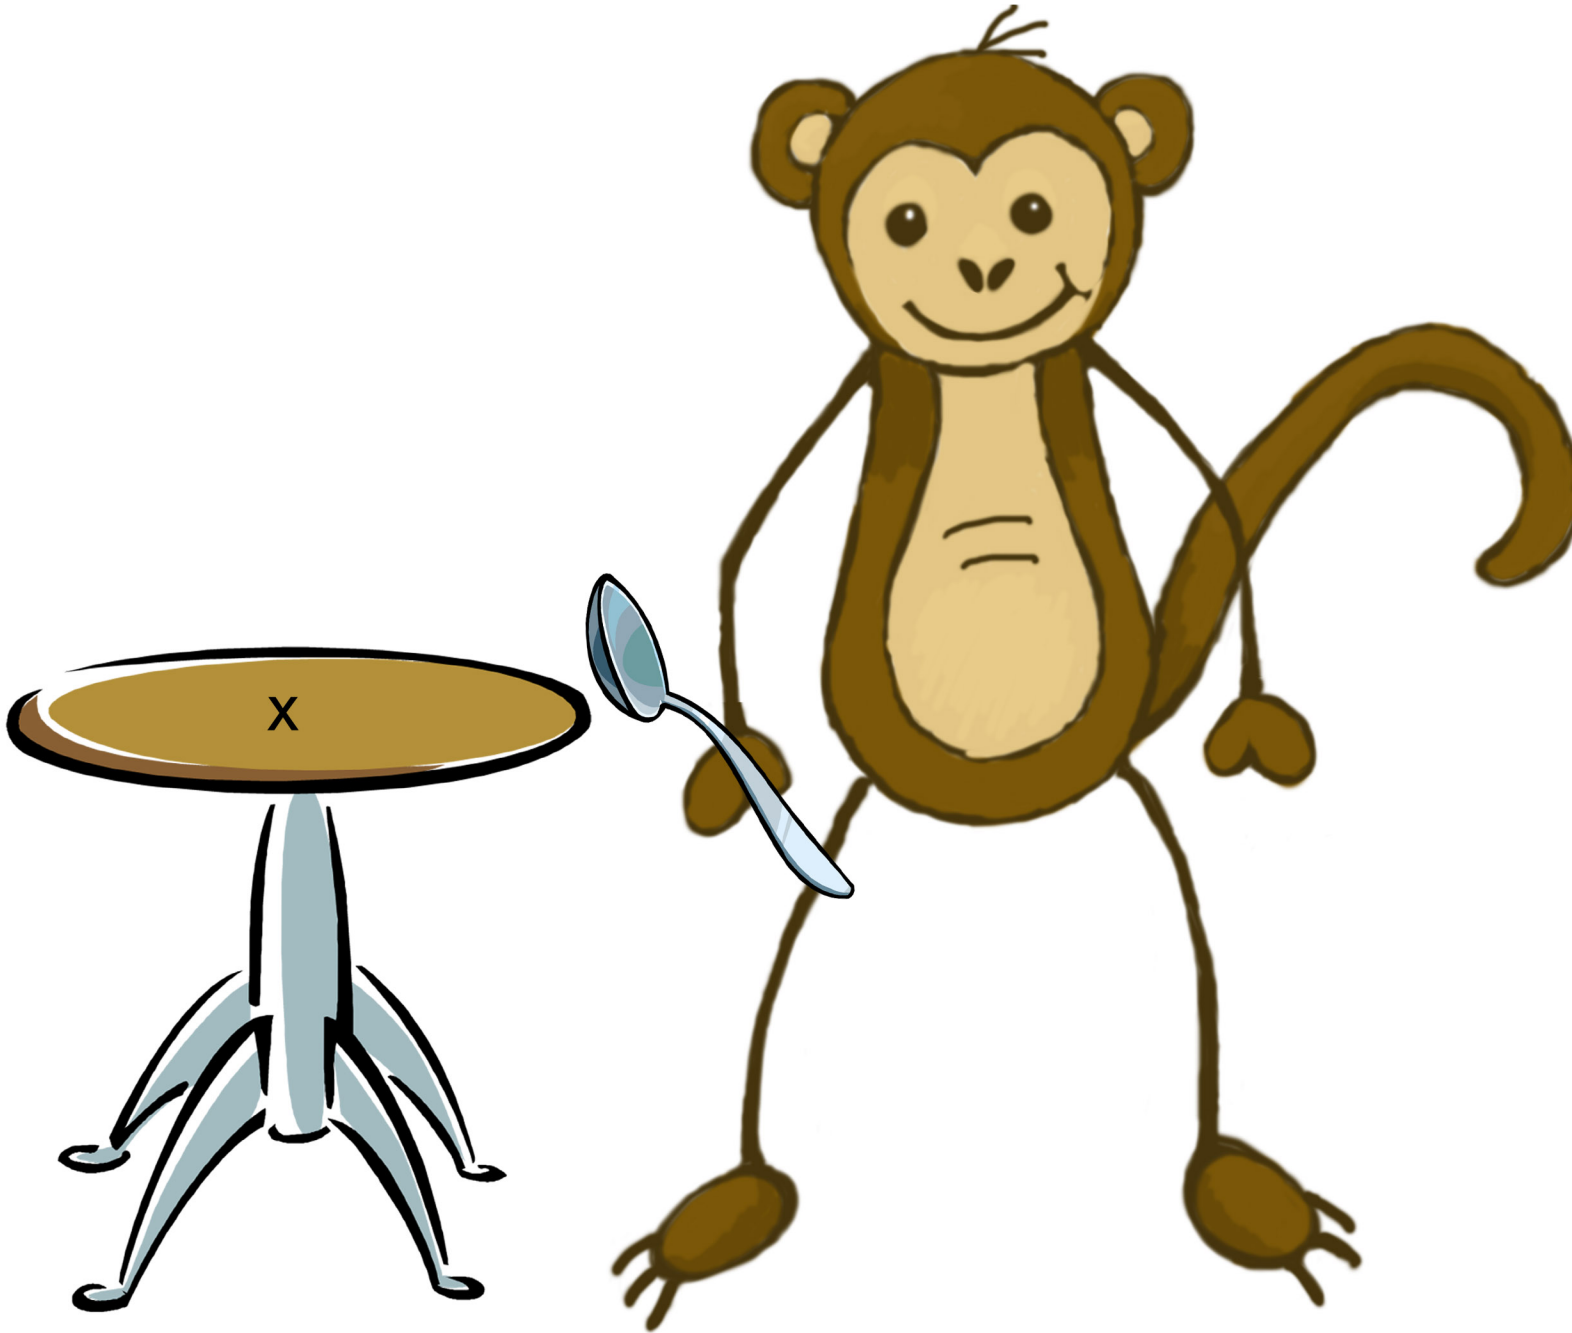

x

Monkey is wearing shoes.
Why is Monkey wearing shoes?
Because he is going outside to play.

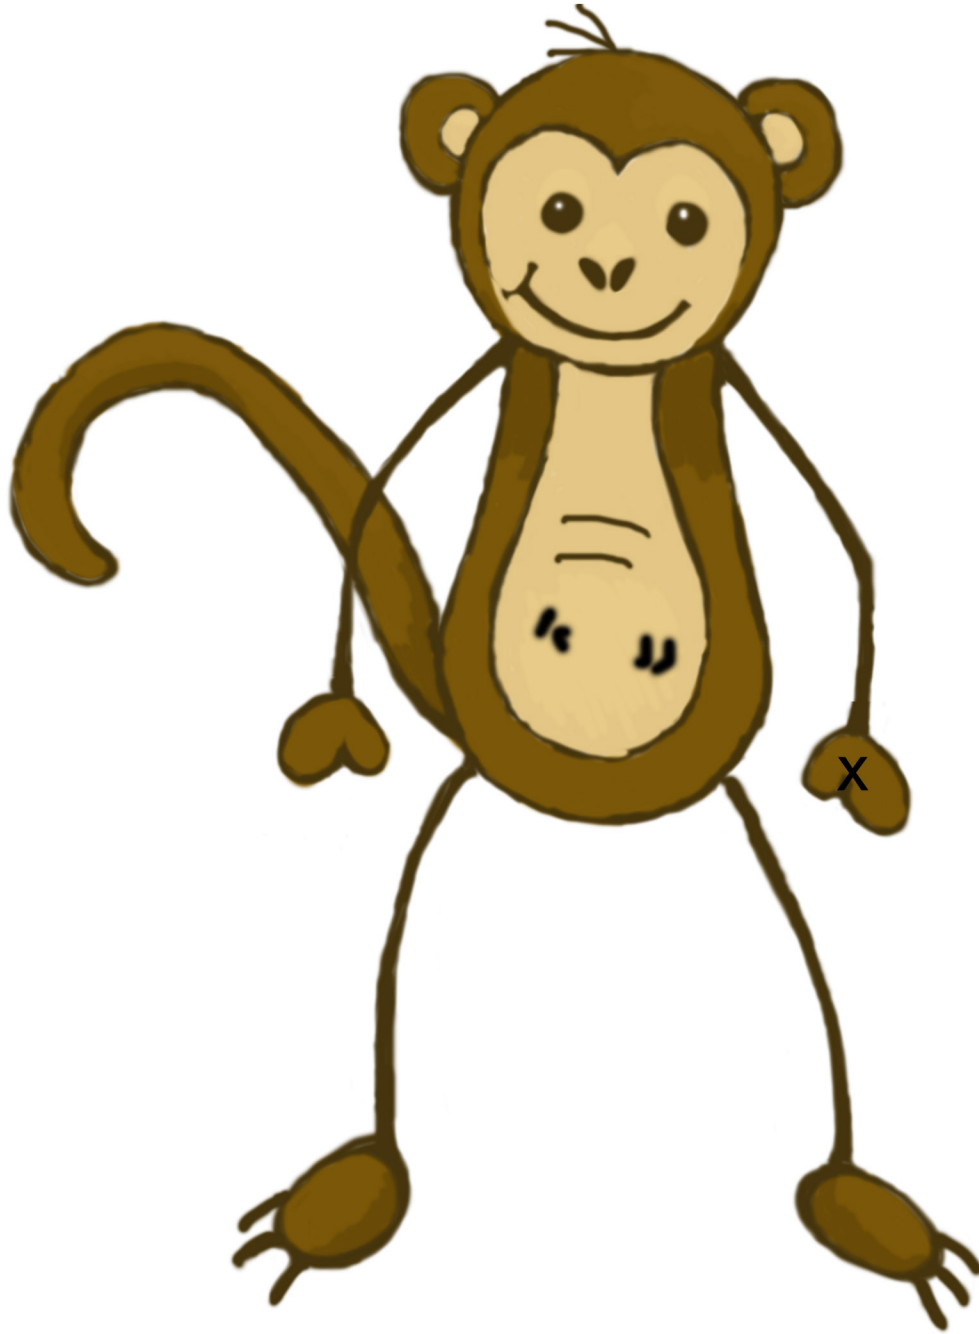

X

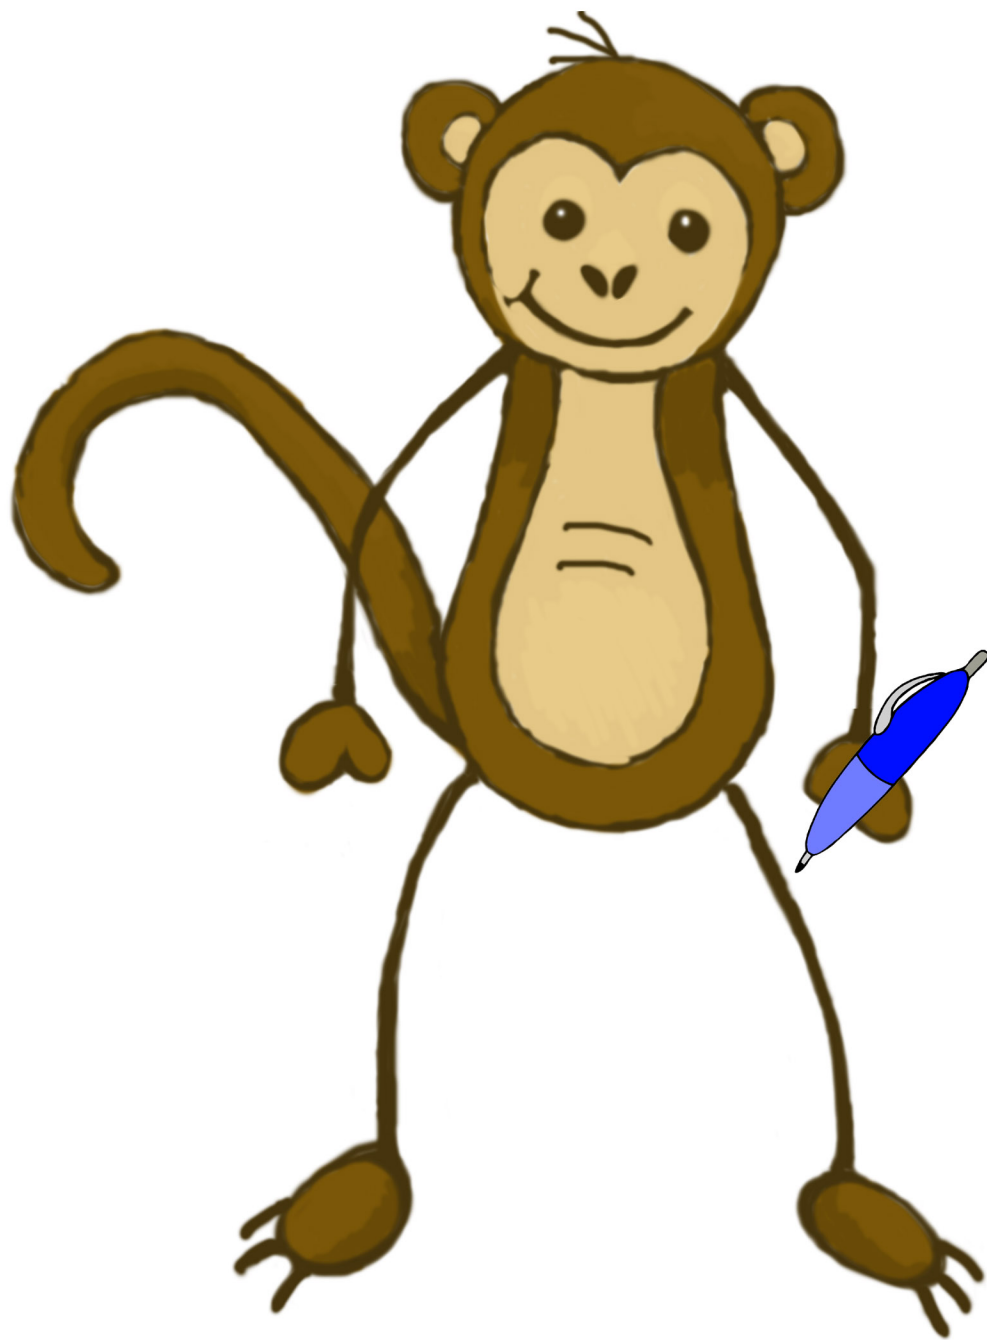

Monkey is wearing sunblock.
Why is Monkey wearing sunblock?
Because he is in the sun.

Monkey has a spoon.
Why does Monkey have a spoon?
Because he is going to eat soup.

Monkey has a banana.
Why does Monkey have a banana?
Because he is hungry.

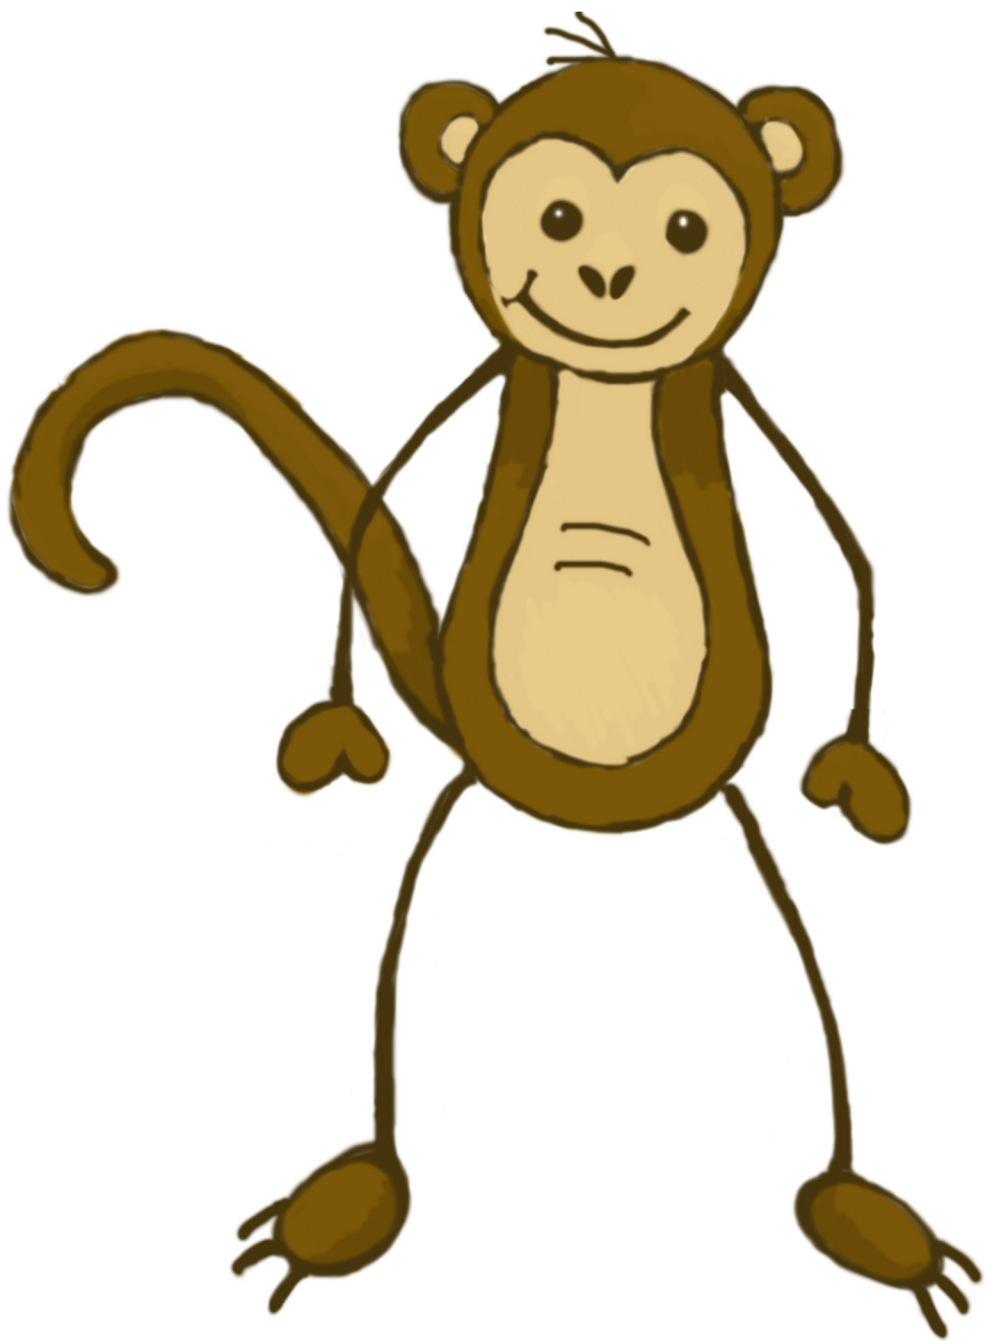

x

Monkey has a pen.
Why does Monkey have a pen?
Because he is writing.

Monkey has a sponge.
Why does Monkey have a sponge?
Because he is taking a bath.

x

Monkey has a ball.
Why does Monkey have a ball?
Because he wants to play.

x

Monkey is wearing a sweater.
Why is Monkey wearing a sweater?
Because he is cold.

